PITTSB STEELERS
CO STAFF

BILL AUSTIN, Head Coach

Bill Austin is just beginning his third year as a head football coach but already he can chalk up one memorable milestone in his youthful career.

At the end of the 1967 season, the Austin-coached Pittsburgh Steelers traveled to Green Bay, Wisconsin and decisively defeated the World's Champions Green Bay Packers. Not only was the victory ranked a major upset, it also marked the last time any team defeated a Vince Lombardi coached team. Following the season, Lombardi stepped down as head coach to devote full time to administrative details.

For Austin, the win had special memories; for as a player with the New York Giants, he was coached by Lombardi and when the famed coach took over at Green Bay, the first assistant he hired was Austin. Now Austin hopes that final victory in 1967 will lead on to greater events in 1968.

Austin started his life as a head coach in 1966. Then he became the fourteenth headmaster in the Pittsburgh Steelers' 36-year history. He's a Californian who began thinking seriously of football as a career when he gained fame as a lineman with Oregon State in the late forties.

He joined the Giants in 1949 and played two seasons before a hitch with the military. Upon discharge, he returned and played from 1953 through 1957 with New York. Jim Lee Howell, then coach of the Giants, called him the "best offensive guard in the NFL."

In 1958 he started his coaching career at Wichita University as an assistant to Woody Woodward. In 1959, he joined Lombardi, who was starting an unforgettable dynasty in Green Bay. He remained there until 1964 when he joined the Los Angeles Rams staff. He was there only a year when he was tabbed for the Pittsburgh Steelers head coaching position.

He was born October 18, 1928 in San Pedro, California but spent most of his early years in Woodburn, Oregon. He and his wife, Goodrun, now make their home in McMurray, a suburb of Pittsburgh.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LaVERN "TORGY" TORGESON, Defensive Coach

LaVern "Torgy" Torgeson is the oldest coach on the Steeler staff—oldest, that is, in point of service. "Torgy" has been with the Steelers since 1962 when he joined Pittsburgh's staff as an assistant to head coach Buddy Parker.

"Torgy" has been interested in football his entire life and has been associated with the NFL since 1951 either as a player or a coach. "Torgy" joined the NFL in 1951 when he was the fifth round choice of the Detroit Lions. He later joined the Washington Redskins where he finished out his active career. A standout performer for both clubs, "Torgy" spent eight years in the NFL as a linebacker and was chosen five times for the All-Pro team. When a damaged knee ended his playing career, "Torgy" joined the coaching ranks.

Under Bill Austin, "Torgy" was shifted from offensive line coach to coach of the entire Steeler defensive unit. With Tom Fletcher guiding the defensive backs, "Torgy" has concentrated on the defensive linemen and linebackers. In two short years, he has developed a "front four" the equal of almost any in the league and has turned such raw rookies as Andy Russell and Bill Saul into outstanding performers.

"Torgy" was born on February 28, 1929. "Torgy", his wife, Nola, and two daughters reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

TOM FLETCHER, Defensive Backfield Coach

It took Tom Fletcher three tries and a few years to break into the NFL but his determination finally paid off two years ago when he joined the Steeler staff as coach of the defensive backs.

Tom's first try with the pros was back in 1953. His role was slightly different then, however, as he reported as a green rookie to the San Francisco 49ers' summer training camp. A serious ankle injury suffered during the pre-season campaign cut short his career. Tom took a year off and then tried again with the New York Giants but the ankle injury proved to be chronic.

Determined to remain in football, Tom joined the coaching ranks as an assistant to Clyde Smith, then head coach of Arizona State. When Dan Devine took over the head coaching position Fletcher stayed with him. Later, when Devine moved on to Missouri, Tom accompanied him. He gave up his position there to join Bill Austin's staff in 1966.

In his college days Tom played ball with an ex-Steeler, John Henry Johnson. Both men played at St. Mary's College in California and when St. Mary's dropped football, both players transferred to Arizona State.

Tom was born on November 3, 1928. Tom, his wife, Fran, and two daughters reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

DON HEINRICH, Offensive Backfield Coach

Pro football is a game of strategy and perfection. A team's running backs and quarterback are the men assigned to carry out this strategy. The man, who for the past two seasons has been instructing Steeler quarterbacks and running backs in the art of strategy, is Don Heinrich.

A brilliant diagnostician of defense, Heinrich is a former pro who spent six seasons with the New York Giants, five of those under the tutelage of Vince Lombardi, then the Giants offensive coach. Before joining the pros Don was an All-American at the University of Washington where he was the nation's leading collegiate passer in both 1950 and 1952.

When he joined the Steeler staff in 1966, Don brought a wealth of coaching experience with him. Prior to his present position, Heinrich worked a year for Dallas coach Tom Landry and then returned to New York where he had charge of the Giants offensive backfield. Don has also worked as an assistant with the Los Angeles Rams and was one of the men responsible for the establishment of the Atlanta Falcons scouting system.

Don was born on September 19, 1931. He is married and has four children. Don, his wife, Barbara, and the family now reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

LEON McLAUGHLIN, Offensive Line Coach

When Bill Austin became head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1966, one of his major objectives was to improve the offensive line. A former NFL lineman himself, Austin searched the country for a man who could rebuild and develop Pittsburgh's front wall. The man he selected was Leon McLaughlin, a former star center for UCLA and the Los Angeles Rams.

Leon came to Pittsburgh in 1966 from the Stanford football staff where he had coached since 1959. Prior to his coaching career Leon had been a standout performer for the UCLA Bruins. He graduated in 1950 and in 1951, joined the Los Angeles Rams. He was a steady performer until 1955 and during those years, he was a member of the Rams 1951 championship squad and played on the '55 divisional winner team.

Following his active career Leon worked at the high school level and then joined the staff at Washington State University. In 1959, he went to Stanford.

Leon was born May 30, 1925. He is married and has four children. He and his wife, Jacqueline, and the family now reside in Bridgeville, Pa.

CARL DE PASQUA, Defensive Line Coach

Carl De Pasqua, rated by his peers as one of the top small college coaches, became a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers coaching staff in February, 1968. He will work "mainly with the defensive line" said Head Coach Bill Austin.

For the past two years, DePasqua has been head coach at Waynesburg College, and, in that period, his team lost only one game—Fairmont State in West Virginia upset Waynesburg, 7 to 0, in the mud last autumn.

DePasqua played at Pitt from 1946 through 1949 and was coached by both Wes Fesler and Mike Miligan; playing both the single wing and "T" formation offenses. He was a halfback and fullback even though the most he ever weighed was 175 pounds.

After a hitch in the military (he played service ball at Brooke Medical Center), he returned to Pitt to obtain his Master's Degree and also worked as the freshman backfield coach. In 1955, he coached with Sarnia in Canada and again returned to Pitt as an assistant in 1958. He remained there until he moved to Waynesburg.

Carl lives in Pittsburgh with his wife, Catherine and two children.

His birthdate: October 28, 1927.

HUGH "BONES" TAYLOR, Offensive End Coach

Pittsburgh's corps of offensive receivers has developed into one of the finest in the NFL the last two seasons and has rapidly become the mainstay of the Steelers' offensive attack. The man responsible for this development is a former Washington Redskin and All-Pro receiver, Hugh Taylor.

"Bones", as he is often better known, was a standout performer for the Washington Redskins from 1947-54. Teaming up with the great Sammy Baugh, Bones caught 272 passes, gained 5,233 yards, and scored 58 touchdowns, a Redskin record that stands to this day.

Before joining Bill Austin's staff in 1966 Taylor gained wide recognition as a coach both in the college and the pro circuits. He was an assistant at Florida State and later became head coach at Arkansas State. Prior to his arrival in the NFL, Taylor worked as an assistant with the New York Jets and the San Diego Chargers of the AFL. He also served for a number of years as head coach of the AFL's Houston Oilers.

Hugh was born in Wynne, Arkansas on July 7, 1923. He is married and has four daughters. Hugh, his wife, Shirley, and the family now reside in Bethel Park, Pa.

STEELERS' TRAINER

RALPH BERLIN

Ralph Berlin, who takes over as head trainer of the Pittsburgh Steelers, has some extraordinary credentials for his new job. He holds a Masters Degree in health and safety with a major in athletic training. He has had nine years of training experience, both at the college and professional level. He himself was a player until an injury cut short his athletic career.

Berlin, now 32, was born in Pasadena, California, but he spent most of his maturing years in Philadelphia. When he finished high school there, he immediately enlisted in the Marine Corps and was discharged as a sergeant.

In 1958, he gained an athletic scholarship to Iowa State University, where an injury ended his days as a football player. It was then that he turned his attention to athletic training.

He served three seasons as an assistant trainer at Iowa State, then became head athletic trainer at DePauw University in Indiana. He was at DePauw until offered the head trainer position at the University of Kentucky in 1964. From there he moved to the Steelers. During the summer months of 1963 and 1964, he worked as an assistant trainer with the St. Louis Cardinals football team.

He is married and the father of two youngsters. He and his wife, Dolores, and children make their home in Pittsburgh.

THE 1968 PITTSBURGH STEELERS

ANDERSON, CHET

SECOND YEAR

TIGHT END | Ht. 6'3" | Wt. 245 | Minnesota

Was not picked until the fourteenth round in the 1967 player selection and developed into one of the real surprise players on the Steeler squad. He is big and durable and an outstanding blocker. Chet understudied John Hilton and was particularly impressive in the clutch. He caught only eight passes but two were for important touchdowns. Also was a top basketball prospect. Is single and lives in Duluth, Minnesota.

ARNDT, DICK

SECOND YEAR

DEFENSIVE TACKLE | Ht. 6'5" | Wt. 265 | Idaho

Originally was picked in the fifth round by the Los Angeles Rams in 1967, sent via the trade route to the Green Bay Packers and the Packers traded Dick to Pittsburgh. He was the fifth man with the defensive line and improved as the season progressed. Lives in Sandpoint, Idaho.

ASBURY, BILL

THIRD YEAR

FULLBACK | Ht. 6'1" | Wt. 230 | Kent State

A leading ground gainer for the Steelers for the past two years, Bill led the team in 1966 with 544 yards and was second in 1967 with 315 yards. He was a great college star who suffered a near-fatal kidney injury and was sidelined for an entire season. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons but traded to the Steelers for a future draft choice. Also has developed into a better than average pass receiver and is an excellent blocker. Had the longest run from scrimmage last year—73 yards against the Chicago Bears in the season opener. Worked on a master's degree in sociology during the off-season. Is married and lives in Ravenna, Ohio.

BLEIER, BOB (ROCKY)

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK | Ht. 5'11" | Wt. 205 | Univ. Notre Dame

Pittsburgh's 16th round selection in 1968. Picked late in the draft because of some question about a knee injury which hampered his play throughout most of last season. Rated a better than average blocker and when healthy, he often made the big play for Notre Dame without receiving much credit. If his injury is healed, he could be a big surprise in the coming season. His speed and good hands also make him a possibility as a flanker. Rocky is single and lives in Appleton, Wisconsin.

BREEDLOVE, ROD

NINTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'2" Wt. 225 Maryland

A versatile football player who came into the NFL in 1960. He was a great star on the famed Maryland teams of yesteryear. He was the San Francisco 49ers third draft choice and the same season was traded to the Washington Redskins. He immediately became a regular. By 1962 he moved into the selected ranks and was named to the All Pro Bowl in January, 1963. He came to the Steelers in 1965 and has performed both as a middle and corner linebacker. He has both poise and experience and has played a key role on a strong Steeler defensive unit. He is married and the father of three children. Lives in Mitchellville, Maryland.

BROWN, JOHN

SEVENTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'2" Wt. 248 Syracuse

Starts his second year with the Steelers. Was acquired in a trade from the Cleveland Browns during the 1967 training camp. John was a Cleveland fourth choice in 1961. He was a red-shirt when drafted. Was a roommate of the late Ernie Davis, a great halfback at Syracuse. Is a native of Camden, New Jersey but now lives in Cleveland, Ohio, where he works as a salesman during the off-season.

BUTLER, JIM

FOURTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5'10" Wt. 195 Edward Waters

Has shown brief signs of excellence in his previous three seasons. Was slowed by injuries part of last year. Jim is capable of running the 100 in 9.7. He has been the team's third leading ground gainer for the past two years. He is the only player from little Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Fla., ever to make it to the pros. Jim was a fourteenth-round draft pick. He and his wife and family now live in Pittsburgh. He works as a substitute teacher during the off-season.

CALABRESE, JAY

FIRST YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6' Wt. 210 Duke University

Jay has been rated a strong runner who makes up for his lack of speed with excellent balance and sheer power. He's strongest on the inside plays, but will have to improve his blocking to make it in the NFL. Most scouts rate him a prospect who can pick up that extra yard. Jay is single and presently lives in College Park, Maryland.

CAMPBELL, JOHN

SIXTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'3" Wt. 225 Minnesota

A top-rated linebacker acquired by Pittsburgh from Baltimore prior to the start of the 1965 season. Was the Vikings 11th choice in 1963. John has been a steady performer with the Steelers. He is considered especially effective against running plays. He is a punishing tackler. John originally began his career with the Minnesota Vikings and was then traded to the Colts. He operates in the mutual fund field during the off-season and also could make an outstanding broadcaster after he finishes playing. Is married and lives in Wadena, Minn.

COMPTON, DICK

SIXTH YEAR

END Ht. 6'1" Wt. 200 McMurry

One of the real surprise players in the league last year. Dick was among the top receivers until felled by an injury which kept him out of action part of the year. Still he managed to catch 42 passes for over 500 yards and place second among the Steeler receivers. He began his career with Detroit in 1962, was released in 1965 and joined Houston. Played sparingly there and then came with the Steelers last year. He has versatility, having played also as an offensive back, a defensive back and has been called upon to do some punting. Is married and lives in Coleman, Texas.

CROPPER, MARSHALL

SECOND YEAR

END Ht. 6'3" Wt. 200 Maryland State

Coaches feel this athlete has all the equipment to become a high-ranked receiver in the league. Also they feel his one year of orientation (he played in spots) will help him with his confidence. Marshall was signed as a free agent last year. He is a movie buff and collects records for hobbies. He is a Virginian and grew up in the little community of Wattsville.

DALTON, DOUG

FIRST YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6'1" Wt. 207 New Mexico State

Pittsburgh's seventh round choice this year and could be the man to give Asbury and Gros a run for their money. Doug runs with authority and is really dedicated to the game of football. Needs to improve his blocking, but was selected primarily for his running ability. Doug is single and resides in Walland, Tennessee.

DAVIS, SAM

SECOND YEAR

GUARD | Ht. 6'1" Wt. 245 | Allen

Sam is expected by many observers to break into the starting lineup this fall. He came up as a free agent from little Allen University in the Carolinas. Is strong with overwhelming speed and the quickness of a jungle cat. His only shortcoming was experience and he gained both experience and confidence while operating as the No. 1 backup man for the offensive guards. Sam is married and makes his home in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

DECKARD, KEN

FIRST YEAR

END | Ht. 5'10" Wt. 180 | McMurry

Probably the fastest man of the squad. What Ken lacks in size, he makes up with speed and courage. His quickness makes him a tough operator in a broken field. Ken competed as a track star and also is a standout swimmer. Is married and lives in Abilene, Texas.

DeROSA, TOM

FIRST YEAR

KICKER | Ht. 6' Wt. 180 | California State (Pa.)

Showed up at one of the Steeler kicking clinics in late June and was signed as a result of his performance. Prior to that date, DeRosa had not kicked since he finished school a couple of years ago. During that period, he concentrated on earning his PGA card; he is a golf pro at an area country club. Lives in Monongahela, Pa.

ELLIOTT, JIM

SECOND YEAR

KICKER | Ht. 5'10" Wt. 175 | Presbyterian

This youngster joined the Steelers in training camp in 1967 and won the punting position. He learned his trade at Presbyterian College where he competed in a number of sports. He looks more like a college sophomore than a football player, but he managed almost a 40 yard kicking average. Jim makes his home in Savannah, Ga., during the off-season. He was born in Montgomery, Alabama.

FORURIA, JOHN

SECOND YEAR

DEFENSIVE BACK | Ht. 6'1" Wt. 200 | Idaho

John spent most of his college career as a quarterback, but switched to the defensive unit last year. Injuries to the starting backs moved him into the battle area and he showed continued improvement. He played well against the Packers when the Steelers upset Green Bay in the final game of the season. John is a bounding Basque from the sheep herding hills of Idaho. Pronounces his name For-ree-ya. Lives in Emmett, Idaho.

GAGNER, LARRY

THIRD YEAR

GUARD | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 240 | Florida

Has been improving with each season. Was a Number Two draft choice in 1966. Larry possesses good strength and speed and likes to be where the action is. Moved into a starting role in his first year. He is an excellent blocker on sweeps and downfield assignments. Was born in Cleveland but grew up in Florida. He has shown some talent as an artist and is currently attending architectural school. He hopes to enter that field after his playing days are over. He now makes his home in Ormond Beach, Fla.

GLENNON, BILL

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 235 | Washington

Steeler scouts rate Bill a tough and strong prospect for Pittsburgh's defensive squad. He is best against the head-on play and must improve his outside movements and pass rush to make it in the pros. He was Pittsburgh's selection in the 7th round, a choice acquired from the Los Angeles Rams. He is single and lives in Billings, Montana.

GROS, EARL

SEVENTH YEAR

FULLBACK | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 220 | Louisiana State

It took this powerful back almost a season to overcome a knee injury but when it was fully repaired he reached the top of his game. His most effective performance came in the Steeler upset win over Green Bay in the final game of the season. Despite his injuries he managed to pile up 252 yards rushing and catch 19 passes for another 175 yards. Earl came in a trade from Philadelphia. He was originally drafted Number 1 by the Packers in 1961. He has great straight-ahead power and the ability to outrun defensemen when he moves into the secondary. Earl works with under-privileged kids during the off-season. He lives in Baton Rouge with his wife and son.

HAGGERTY, MIKE

SECOND YEAR

TACKLE | Ht. 6'4" Wt. 240 | Miami (Fla.)

Was a sixth draft choice and was expected to serve his apprenticeship as a "swing man" with the offensive tackles. But an injury to two offensive linemen sent him into the front lines. His full year's experience should stand him in great position as this season opens. He is a Michigan native who was lured to the sunny southland. His home is Royal Oak, Michigan.

HARRIS, LOU

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE HALFBACK Ht. 6' Wt. 180 Kent State

Pittsburgh's 14th choice in this year's draft. Lou will battle Steeler veterans for a place on the squad but will have to compensate for his size. Possesses average speed but covers well and had a lot of interceptions in college. Must improve his tackling and with work could develop into a top prospect. Lou is singe and lives in Alexandria, Virginia.

HEBERT, KEN

FIRST YEAR

END Ht. 6' Wt. 200 Houston

Picked in the third round in the recent draft. Ken has the ability to stick with the Steelers as either a kicker or an offensive receiver. He is a consistent punter and throughout his college career has averaged better than 40 yards per kick. He's a fine competitor with good speed and the ability to catch the ball in a crowd. Played in first Big 33 Game between Pennsylvania and Texas All Stars. Ken is married and lives in Houston, Texas.

HENDERSON, JON

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6' Wt. 195 Colorado State

A third round selection in the draft. Jon hails from Pittsburgh where he played high school ball under the watchful eye of Pete Dimperio at Westinghouse High School. Has played offense the past two seasons but Steeler coaches feel that he has the ability to play in the defensive secondary. General concensus among Steeler scouts is that Jon is one of the finest athletes in the country and should be a valuable addition to the Steeler squad. Jon is married and has one child. He and his family live in Pittsburgh.

HILGENBERG, WALLY

FIFTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'3" Wt. 235 Iowa

Drafted Number 4 in 1964 by the Detroit Lions, he was one of the outstanding linemen in the Big Ten. Brother of Jerry, former All-American center at Iowa. Began as an offensive guard but later was switched to the defensive platoon by the Lions. His lone claim to fame is that he once returned a kickoff—two years ago. He is expected to bolster the linebacking corps, by adding depth with experience. Born in Marshalltown and attended school at Wilton Junction, Iowa. Is married and lives in Detroit, Michigan.

HILTON, JOHN

FOURTH YEAR

END | Ht. 6'5" Wt. 225 | Richmond

Was drafted as a junior eligible by the Detroit Lions but arrived in the Motor City when there was an abundance of tight ends. Reluctantly traded to the Steelers, he almost immediately took over the starting position. He has the size and the speed needed for a tight end, who has to be an exceptional blocker, a fine receiver and a good runner. Two years ago he led the Steelers in pass receiving with 46 receptions. He is especially effective on the short look-ins and button hook patterns. During the off-season he worked as a trainee at United States Steel. John married a Pittsburgh girl and now makes his home here. He was born in Albany, New York.

HINTON, CHUCK

FIFTH YEAR

TACKLE | Ht. 6'5" Wt. 250 | North Carolina State

Had shown considerable improvement and last season, according to the coaches' ratings, Chuck had his most productive year. He may be the original strong, silent man. He's a man of very few words. Chuck had tryouts with both the Baltimore Colts and the Cleveland Browns before making it with Pittsburgh. He is a North Carolinian and works with the neighborhood Youth Corps during the off-season. Is married, has two children and lives in Durham, North Carolina.

HOAK, DICK

EIGHTH YEAR

HALFBACK | Ht. 5'10" Wt. 190 | Penn State

Dick is perhaps one of the most underrated players in the NFL. He has won great respect from players and coaches alike. Had he been blessed with burning speed, one coach remarked, he might have been the greatest in the league. Bobby Layne once called him "the most perfect player" in my time . . . "seldom makes a mistake," the famed quarterback said of this halfback. He has exceptional courage, is a fine blocker, exceptional running the pass routes and catching the ball. Also is dangerous on the pass-option and has the unenviable job of holding the ball on extra points and field goals. Is the offensive team captain. Dick is married, has a daughter and lives in Greensburg, Pa.

HOHN, BOB

FOURTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6′ Wt. 185 Nebraska

The Rams did not get around to selecting him until the 20th round in 1963, then as a junior eligible. And only for injuries he probably would have been a starter right at the beginning. He was traded to Pittsburgh in 1965 and missed most of the 1966 season because of a broken hip. He took over the cornerback post—probably the toughest in football—when Brady Keys was traded to Minnesota. He's small but tough and a deadly tackler. Is married. He worked on the Beatrice, Nebraska police force (his home town) this past off-season.

HOLMAN, DANNY

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6′2″ Wt. 186 San Jose State

A quarterback with a quick delivery and a talent for spotting the "second" receiver. Has a great deal of self confidence and should give Nix and Shiner a real run for their money. Was selected in the 8th round in the player draft and Steeler coaches feel that Danny could be a real find. In his Junior Year he was rated No. 1 in accuracy of all college quarterbacks and also a former All-America Junior College Quarterback for Monterey. Danny lives in Carmel, California.

HONER, JOE

KICKER Ht. 5′10″ Wt. 170 No College

Free Agent

A soccer-style kicker signed at one of the kicking caravans held prior to the training season. Married; lives in Chicago. Was born in Mohocs, Hungary.

JEFFERSON, ROY

FOURTH YEAR

END Ht. 6′2″ Wt. 195 Utah

There are few athletes in the NFL with more natural ability than this man. Roy possesses the speed and exceptional moves of all the good players. Injuries crimped his style last fall. But his versatility allows him to play a number of positions and this year, the coaching staff is toying with the idea of using him as a defensive back. Despite a spate of little hurts in 1967, he managed to catch 29 passes for 459 yards and four touchdowns. He also is a threat on the end-around play. Probably is the most effective man on the long, deep pass. With his wife and two children, he now makes his home in Pittsburgh. Worked in one of the tri-state's larger department stores in the off-season and also dabbled in investments.

JETER, TONY

SECOND YEAR

END | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 220 | Nebraska

Tony was part of a deal with Green Bay which sent Lloyd Voss and Ron Smith here for a future draft pick. He's a brother of Bob, famed cornerback with the Packers. Spent part of last season with the Wheeling Ironmen and also in the "taxi" squad. He has all the credentials to become a great player in the NFL. The coaching staff hopes he puts everything together this year. Tony was born in Steubenville, Ohio, lived in Weirton, W. Va. and now makes his home in Pittsburgh. During the off-season, he worked at the downtown Y.M.C.A. in the health club.

KNIGHT, JOHN

FIRST YEAR

END | Ht. 6'2" Wt. 230 | Weber State

John played five different positions in college but Steeler coaches feel his real ability lies as a defensive end. By pro standards he's small but he should be able to put on a few pounds and he possesses better than average football intelligence. He was Pittsburgh's 9th selection in 1968. John is married and has two children. He and his family live in San Bruno, California.

KORTAS, KEN

FIFTH YEAR

TACKLE | Ht. 6'4" Wt. 280 | Louisville

Obtained from the Cardinals in an off-season trade for Terry Nofsinger in 1965. Was the Cards' first draft pick the previous year but had weight problems. Became a starting tackle with the Steelers in 1966 and continued on the defensive front four last year. Has great speed for his size and can be as good and as tough as he wants to be. If he continues to control his weight he could gain stature as one of the better tackles in the league. He hails from Chicago, and owns a farm in Kentucky. Ken married a Pittsburgh girl in early July and now makes his home in Pittsburgh.

LEE, THOMAS

FIRST YEAR

GUARD | Ht. 6'1" Wt. 238 | Bethune-Cookman

Another boy with good effort but lacks overall size. He's quick and aggressive and could develop but will have to learn more technique to compensate for his size. Was coached by former Steeler end, Jack McClaren. Is married and lives in Pittsburgh.

McCANE, BYRON

FIRST YEAR

RUNNING BACK | Ht. 6 Wt. 213 | No College

Byron is an elusive runner who combines speed with power. Played in semi-pro League last season and Steeler coaches feel he can make the adjustment to the NFL. He's also an excellent blocker and is an average receiver but makes his presence felt when he's carrying the ball. Is married and lives in Philadelphia.

McGEE, BEN

FIFTH YEAR

END | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 260 | Jackson State

Tremendous speed and agility enabled "Big" Ben to crack the starting lineup as a rookie and he has remained there ever since. He has been an important part of the Steeler defensive unit—always considered one of the best in the league. Ben was bothered with injuries during part of last season but came on strong as the season moved into the latter stages. Is extremely quick and undoubtedly one of the strongest men in the game. Has shown marked improvement each season and now rated one of the better defensive ends in the NFL. Ben was selected on the All-Pro team in 1966. He spent a year in the Air Force. His home was in Starkville, Mississippi but he since has moved his family to Pittsburgh.

MANSFIELD, RAY

SIXTH YEAR

CENTER | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 250 | Washington

Was the Philadelphia Eagles second draft choice in 1963; was taken off a famed Washington team where he gained All-America reputation as a tackle. Was sent to Pittsburgh in 1964 and has played some offensive tackle before becoming a center. Has been a starter there since 1966 and has developed into an effective pass blocker. Has good speed and power. Married and the father of two children. lives in Kennewick, Washington.

MARION, JERRY

SECOND YEAR

END | Ht. 5'10" Wt. 185 | Wyoming

Was drafted as a junior eligible in 1966. Spent part of last season with the Steelers and part with the Wheeling Ironmen. Was easily the Ironmen's outstanding player. Came up as a flanker but spent part of last season working with the defensive secondary. Good versatility. Is a good receiver and also dangerous on kickoff and punt returns. If needed, also can do some punting. Played in the Sun Bowl and helped Wyoming to a victory in the post-season battle. Lives with his wife and three children in Wheeling, West Virginia. Was born in Bakersfield, California.

MARTHA, PAUL

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6′ Wt. 190 Pitt

It took a little doing but this fine athlete now has established himself in the NFL. Was a first draft choice in 1964 but had a little adjustment problem before finding his spot as a defensive back. He could develop into a top team leader. Is smart and has quick reaction. Meets the running play with enthusiasm and is an excellent pass defender. Usually the first man down on the kickoff and punt "suicide" squads. Paul picked off four enemy aerials last year. Has been attending Duquesne Law School during the off-season and will be ready to take his bar exams next year. A native Pittsburgher, he is married and the father of a little boy.

MAY, RAY

SECOND YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6′1″ Wt. 234 U. S. C.

Spent most of his first year in an on-the-job training program. Worked mainly as a corner linebacker and performed extremely well on most of the special teams. Has outstanding speed and uncoils with the swiftness of a panther. His first season should give him the confidence to work his way into a regular spot. Was a fourth draft choice of Pittsburgh in 1967. He lives in Los Angeles.

MAZZANTI, JERRY

FOURTH YEAR

END Ht. 6′3″ Wt. 240 Arkansas

Although drafted as a junior eligible in 1962, Jerry has had a rather interrupted NFL career. Came up with the Eagles in 1962 and then spent the 1964-65 years in military service. Was traded to the Lions in 1966 and the Lions sent him to Pittsburgh for Roger Pillath in 1967. Operated as the fifth defensive lineman and helped immeasurably last year. Was a Business Administration major at Arkansas; now in Law School at the University of Tennessee. Is single and lives in Lake Village, Arkansas.

MOORE, JERRY

FIRST YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6′ Wt. 250 Bethune-Cookman

Jerry played for the Wheeling Ironmen last season and rapidly developed into one of the finest players in the League. Despite his size he is quick and can cover most receivers in his area. Must learn to play linebacker in the NFL and should make an impressive showing. Is married and lives in Hastings, Florida.

MORGAN, BOB

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6'0" Wt. 205 New Mexico

Spent a few years in the Canadian league before coming to the Steelers. Showed great promise as a defensive back until an injury forced him to the sidelines. Has the speed and the savvy to make him a tough competitor this fall. Is very quiet on and off the field but a serious tough-minded football player. Is married and makes his home in Ontario, Canada. Was born in Wamego, Kansas.

NIX, KENT

SECOND YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6'2" Wt. 195 Texas Christian

Started his career with the Green Bay Packers in 1966 but the play of Bart Starr and Zeke Bratkowski sent him to the "taxi" squad for seasoning. Steeler coach, Bill Austin, one-time member of the Packer coaching staff, was impressed with the youngster and made a deal for him during the 1967 training season. Events then moved swiftly for this young Texan. He became a starter in the second game of the season when Bill Nelsen was injured. He showed remarkable poise for a rookie, even though operating under considerable pressure. The full year's experience is expected to move him up many notches in the league's ratings. Led the Steelers to a big upset victory over Green Bay in the final game of the 1967 season. Comes from an athletic family. His father, now an elementary school principal in Corpus Christi, Texas, played for the New York Giants in the early forties. Kent spent the off-season working on some of his academic courses at TCU. Is single and lives in Corpus Christi. His first year record reads 236 attempts, 136 completions for 1587 yards and eight touchdowns. His passing percentage stood at 51 per cent.

O'BRIEN, FRAN

TENTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'1" Wt. 250 Michigan State

Was having one of his finest years when felled with a broken ankle in 1967. Was sidelined for two-thirds of the year and his loss was felt by the offensive unit. Came to Pittsburgh from the Redskins in 1966. Was operating on six seasons without missing a game when hurt against the Cleveland Browns. Took over the spot vacated by Charlie Bradshaw and was a regular almost as soon as he reported. An exceptional blocker and uses his vast experience to great advantage. Owns a restaurant in Washington, D.C. Makes his home with his wife and family in Silver Springs, Maryland.

PARKER, FRANK

SIXTH YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'5" Wt. 270 Oklahoma State

Obtained this season from the Cleveland Browns along with Quarterback Dick Shiner. Frank is an aggressive tackle who returned to the Browns' lineup in 1966 after a year's layoff due to a knee injury. He played a good deal last season and appears to have returned to his old form that won him a starting berth at tackle for the Browns in 1963. He played both offense and defense in college and was selected to the College All-Star squad in 1962. Lives in Cleveland, Ohio.

ROUNDY, JOE

FIRST YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6'3" Wt. 230 Puget Sound

Played a lot of defense in college but will be used as an offensive guard with Pittsburgh. Has good balance and speed for a guard and should be able to put a few more pounds on without it hampering him. Needs experience and instruction if he's going to make it. Was Pittsburgh's 13th pick in the draft. Is married and lives in Tacoma, Washington.

RUPLE, ERNIE

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'4" Wt. 256 Arkansas

Pittsburgh's 2nd selection in the draft, Ernie could develop into a top pro player. He's aggressive and quick but will have to be instructed in the conventional blocking of pros. Arkansas uses the four-point stance and the scramble block so Ernie may have some difficulty in the early weeks. Steeler coaches surprised he was not chosen in the first round. Ernie is single and lives in Conway, Arkansas.

RUSSELL, ANDY

FOURTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'2" Wt. 215 Missouri

Comparatively new in the NFL, but highly respected by teammates and opponents alike. Was Steelers' defensive captain last season. Was originally a sixteenth draft choice in 1963. Andy served two years in the Army during the 1964 and 1965 campaigns but returned to top form in 1966. Has rapidly developed into one of the finest linebackers in the league. He's a rugged competitor who hits hard and follows the ball. He intercepted three passes last season. He and his family now live in Pittsburgh. He was born in Detroit, Michigan.

SAUL, BILL

SIXTH YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'4" Wt. 224 Penn State

Came to Pittsburgh in the Lou Michaels trade with Baltimore. Bill has been the Steelers' Number One middle linebacker ever since. Had his best season during the 1967 campaign. Was always a tough competitor who hits high and hard. Has developed into an "intelligent" ball player who has a knack for being where the ball is. Bill and his family live in Baltimore, Maryland where he worked as a youth director at the Y.M.C.A.

SHINER, DICK

FIFTH YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6'0" Wt. 197 Maryland

Originally drafted by the Washington Redskins in the seventh round of the 1964 selections, Dick was traded to the Cleveland Browns last season. He then was traded to Pittsburgh this year with Frank Parker in exchange for Quarterback Bill Nelsen and Defensive back, Jim Bradshaw. He was Maryland's greatest passer but has seen only limited action in the NFL so far. He's a good quarterback who has had to play behind such stars as Jurgensen and Ryan. Was to have started in the Runner-Up Bowl last season but suffered a broken leg prior to the game. Healthy now and ready to play. Dick and his family live in Greenbelt, Maryland.

SHOCKLEY, BILL

FIRST YEAR

K-DB Ht. 5'11" Wt. 185 West Chester State

Had a try with the Jets of the AFL and was signed by Pittsburgh at one of the kicking caravans held prior to the training season. He's trying for the place kicking job which was left open with the retirement of Mike Clark.

SHY, DON

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6'1" Wt. 205 San Diego State

A second year man who has a chance to develop into a top back. He averaged 4.1 yards per carry as a rookie. He was track oriented in high school and part of his college days and he still is working on fundamental techniques. He has great speed and balance. Was second best hurdler in the nation and ranked high in the decathlon while at San Diego. His brother, Les, plays with the Dallas Cowboys. He was a second draft choice in 1967. Married, father of one child. Lives in Los Angeles.

SKOSNIK, RON

FIRST YEAR

QUARTERBACK Ht. 6'2" Wt. 200 North Carolina State

Ron spent last season with the Wheeling Ironmen where he had a good season. In one game alone he threw 5 touchdown passes. He has a good arm and a quick delivery and knows how to run when he has to. Will be given a long look in training camp where he must prove he can play in the NFL. Is single and lives in McKees Rocks, Pa.

SMITH, ROGER

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'3" Wt. 255 Fresno State

Also a member of the Wheeling Ironmen last year, Roger has a good chance of making it in the NFL this season. He recovers from blocks quickly and made a lot of tackles last season. Must improve his pass rush to play defensive tackle and must be able to adapt to Pittsburgh's defensive techniques.

TAYLOR, MIKE

FIRST YEAR

TACKLE Ht. 6'5" Wt. 246 U. S. C.

In college Mike received little notice because of Ron Yary but Steeler scouts and coaches watched him for three years and decided to make him their No. 1 selection in the player draft. Leon McLaughlin says that he's the best pass protection blocker he scouted all last season and many feel he's better than Yary in this area. He learns fast and is an enthusiastic worker. Mike is single and makes his home in San Francisco, California.

THOMAS, CLENDON

ELEVENTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6'2" Wt. 200 Oklahoma

From point of service, he is the oldest member of the Steeler squad. Clendon is an experienced defensive back who has also played offense for Pittsburgh. Is a dangerous punt return specialist; a good tackler who covers his man well. He had two interceptions last season. His experience enables him to stay with the best in the league. Played on some of Oklahoma's greatest teams. Is an all-around sports enthusiast. Lives in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

TUBBS, BOB

FIRST YEAR

LINEBACKER Ht. 6'2" Wt. 232 Northwestern

Bob spent all of last season on Pittsburgh's taxi squad. He has good speed and likes to hit and was impressive while at camp last season. Head Coach Bill Austin felt he needed more experience so he sent him to Wheeling for one year. Bob improved throughout the year and is ready to try again. Lives in North Chicago.

VAN DYKE, BRUCE

THIRD YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6'2" Wt. 250 Missouri

Obtained from Philadelphia last season along with Earl Gros in the Gary Ballman trade. He stepped into a starting role and stayed there the entire season. Bruce is a young and rugged blocker who should be around for a long time to come. He surprised many who failed to consider him an important part of the Ballman deal. Is married, has one child and lives in Kansas City, Missouri.

VOSS, LLOYD

FIFTH YEAR

END Ht. 6'2" Wt. 240 Nebraska

Traded to Pittsburgh in 1965 in what has turned out to be one of the Steelers' finest deals. Lloyd was the Packers first pick in the 1964 selections and has played accordingly since he entered the league. He can play both offense and defense but his best position is defensive end where he puts on a rush second to no one in the NFL. He and his family live in Pittsburgh. Lloyd is in the insurance business in the off-season.

WADE, BOB

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6'2" Wt. 200 Morgan State

A good tackler who recovers well, Bob comes to Pittsburgh with good credentials. He has average speed and covers adequately man-to-man. Must learn to compensate for his lack of great speed. Spent some time with Colts. Is married and lives in Baltimore.

WENZEL, RALPH

THIRD YEAR

GUARD 6'2" Wt. 240 San Diego State

Ralph was acquired from the Cleveland Browns prior to the start of the 1966 season. He is a fine blocker who can fill in capably at either guard or tackle. He has great desire and loves to hit. Is married and lives in San Diego, California. He attended graduate school during the off-season.

WERL, BOB

FIRST YEAR

DEFENSIVE END | Ht. 6'3" Wt. 250 | Miami

A local boy, Bob played his high school ball at South Catholic. Played a bit with the New York Jets and could turn out to be the major surprise of the coming season. He's a rugged tackler and if he improves his pass rush could turn out to be an important acquisition to the squad. Is single and lives in Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

WHITLOW, BOB

SEVENTH YEAR

CENTER | Ht. 6'2" Wt. 238 | Arizona

A seasoned veteran who has played for the Redskins and Lions and the Atlanta Falcons who now may make it with Pittsburgh. He was a starter at center while with Detroit. He once tried his driving skills on the Indianapolis Speedway. Bob is married, lives in Orchard Lake, Michigan.

WILBURN, J. R.

THIRD YEAR

END | Ht. 6'2" Wt. 190 | South Carolina

Pittsburgh's thirteenth selection as a future eligible in the 1963 selections, J. R. was a real find. He became the Steelers' top receiver last season. He teamed up with Kent Nix to catch 51 passes for 767 yards, five touchdowns for 30 points scored. He can catch the ball in a crowd and has rapidly become a real crowd pleaser. A classy player, J. R. already has become a star in the NFL and should continue to perform for many years to come. He is married and lives in Portsmouth, Virginia.

WOODSON, MARV

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK | Ht. 6'0" Wt. 185 | Indiana

Also a part of the Lou Michaels trade, Marv originally was the Colts Number One pick in 1964. He was Pittsburgh's representative in the Pro Bowl last season; an honor which resulted from his tremendous play and his seven interceptions to lead the team in that department. Was hampered by injuries his first two seasons but has since developed into one of the finest defensive backs in the NFL. He should be a return member of the All-Pro squad again in 1968. Worked as a trainee at United States Steel this past off-season. He and wife, JoAnn live in Pittsburgh.

ZUNICH, LARRY

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK | Ht. 6' Wt. 195 | Richmond

Played with the Wheeling Ironmen in 1967. A fellow with a lot on the ball and impressed Steeler coaches who scouted him while at Wheeling. Is a school teacher in the off-season. Was born in Gallitzin, Pa.
